No suitable helper was found for Adam, so the Lord God caused him to fall into a deep sleep, and while he was sleeping he took one of his ribs and made a woman.

The Lord God said, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden, but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil for when you eat of it you will surely die."

Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God really say, 'You must not eat from any tree in the garden?'"

When the Eve saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate. She also gave some to Adam, and he ate it.

Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

THE FALL

God banished them from the Garden of Eden. Adam and Eve later gave birth to two sons, Cain and Abel.
