

DAYS OF CREATION

The Beginning

1

God called the light "day" and the darkness he called "night".
(Genesis 1:1-5)

2

God said, "Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate water from water. God called the expanse 'sky'."
(Genesis 1:6-8)

3

God called the dry ground "land," and the gathered waters he called "seas." The land produced vegetation.
(Genesis 1:9-13)

4

God made two great lights - the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars.
(Genesis 1:14-19)

5

God said, "Let the water teem with living creatures and let birds fly above the earth."
(Genesis 1:20-23)

6

God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female. God saw all that he made, and it was very good.
(Genesis 1:24-31)

7

By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work..
(Genesis 2:1-3)
