

ISAAC BLESSES JACOB

GENESIS 27:1-46

When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could no longer see, he called for Esau.

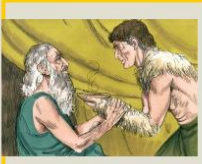

Isaac said, "Prepare me the kind of tasty food I like so that I may give you my  blessing."

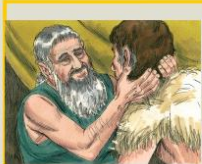

Now Rebekah was listening as Isaac spoke to Esau. She came up with a plan for Jacob to get Isaac's blessing.

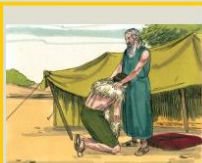

Jacob put on Esau's clothes. Rebekah put goatskins on his hands and on the back of his neck.

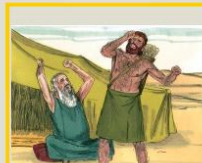

Jacob went close to Isaac who said, "The voice is Jacob's but the hands are the hands of Esau."

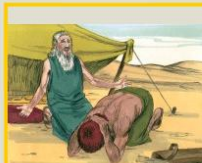

"Are you really my son Esau?" Isaac asked. "I am." Jacob replied.

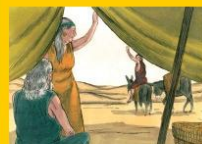

Jacob kissed Isaac and when Isaac caught the smell of his clothing he blessed him.

When Esau returned he asked for Isaac's blessing. Isaac trembled, "Who was it that came before you?"

Esau said, "Bless me too father!" Isaac said, "Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing."

Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, "The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob." Rebekah heard of this and said to Jacob, "Flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran. Stay with him a while until your brother's fury subsides."
