

JOSIAH

The Book of the Law is Found

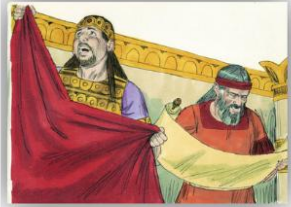

2 Kings 22 & 23

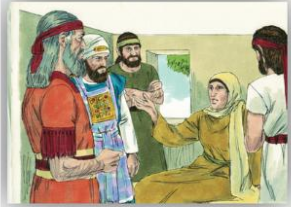

Josiah gives instructions for repairing the temple.

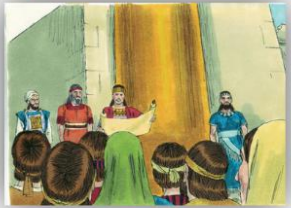

Hilkiah the high priest finds the Book of the Law in the temple of the Lord and gives it to Shaphan, the king's secretary.

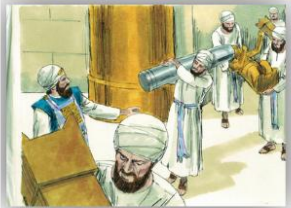

Shaphan reads the words from the Book of the Law to Josiah. When Josiah hears the words he tears his robes.

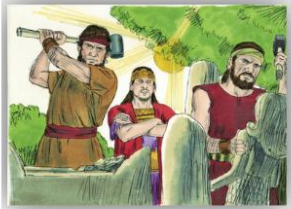

Huldah the prophetess is consulted and she gives them a message from God to take back to the king.

Josiah gathers all the people from the least to the greatest and reads all the words from the Book of the Law.

Josiah orders that all articles made for Baal and Asherah be removed from the temple.

All the altars and shrines are torn down and destroyed. Josiah commands the people to celebrate the Passover.
