

Elijah

Now Elijah the Tishbite, from Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the Lord, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word."

1 Kings 17:1

I can't believe all things are possible. That statement contains the essence of faith, or lack of faith. We set limits as to what we will believe. Some people will believe only what they can understand and explain. Other people will believe only what they can see or touch. The boundaries we set are ours, not God's.

"Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years." James 5:17

To discover your boundaries ask yourself, Where would I be, or what would I be doing if I believed that all things were possible? The things which prevent you from going or doing are your boundaries of faith.
